

RADIO SHOW PROPOSAL FORM

RMU radio is looking for hosts to broadcast programs on air which may include talk shows, discussing politics, RMU sports, current events, music shows showcasing songs of all genres, shows about various cultures and events around campus and the surrounding community. Please follow the below format when turning up your proposal. For any other questions, feel free to contact:

Krishna S Guntupalli, Operations Manager: ksgst590@mail.rmu.edu

Malyk Johnson, Program Director: mtjst320@mail.rmu.edu

Please attach a word document or a separate sheet of paper describing the detailed concept of your show in 150-200 words and mail to rmuradio@rmu.edu

Below are just a few suggestions that may help you describe your concept.

- TITLE: What is the title of your program
- What is the show about? (Describe it)
- How long will your show be? (30, 60 minutes)
- What kind of music might you play?
- Will there be any interviews?
 - What is the topic that you are interviewing on?
 - Who is responsible for scheduling interviews?
- Will there be any guest speakers coming in to speak on the air?
- How will your show be organized?

All radio programs irrespective of time length should be organized into multiple segments for example a one hour show could be split into four fifteen minute segments or two thirty minute segments and you can use one segment to play songs, other to share your views on a topic and can interview someone you bring in or phone interview.

- How many segments will your show be structured into?

INFORMATION: Please provide the details of all the people involved with this show.
